

Comparing Postsecondary Options - Answer Key

Community College	College or University	Apprenticeship	Voc Tech or Trade School
Most students choose their own schedule	Many students live on campus in dorms	Many opportunities for hands-on learning	Instructors are often employed in the occupation they teach
Usually on a smaller campus	Offers sports programs, clubs, and social events	Opportunities to learn on the job	Usually on a smaller campus
Offers certification programs	Offers bachelor's degrees	Instructors are employed in the occupation they teach	Some programs may take less than one year to complete
Offers sports programs, clubs, and social events	Offers certification programs	After completing this type of training, most people achieve journey-level	Offers certification programs
Some programs may take less than one year to complete	Offers associate's degrees	Students earn money while they learn	Classrooms are often similar to worksites
Offers associate's degrees	Most students choose their own schedule	No tuition required	Many opportunities for hands-on learning