Overview of policy changes

Federal level

Olmstead and the ADA

- "...the state (Georgia) discriminated against L.C. and E.W. by confining them in a segregated institution rather than providing them services in integrated community settings - ...the state's actions in this case constituted discrimination... - ...the state has violated the core principle underlying the ADA's integration mandate...”

Home-Community Based Settings rule

"The setting is integrated in and supports full access of individuals receiving Medicaid HCBS to the greater community, including opportunities to:

- seek employment and work in competitive integrated settings
- engage in community life
- control personal resources
- receive services in the community, to the same degree of access as individuals not receiving Medicaid HCBS."

How Employment First Works

Person-Centered Planning
Discover a person’s unique strengths, interests, abilities, preferences, resources, and desired outcomes

- Where do I want to work?
- What do I like to do?
- What am I good at?
- What are my goals?

Identify a desired outcome
The Place on the Path to Employment was developed by self advocates and helps individuals identify their outcomes for employment.

1) I have a job but would like a better one or to move up
2) I want a job! I need help to find one
3) I am not sure about work. I need help to learn more.
4) I don’t think I want to work, but I may not know enough about it.

Disability Benefits 101 (DB 101) is an integrated suite of online tools, information, and training where people with disabilities can directly access plain-language information about work and benefits and health coverage programs.

- Three calculators have been developed for Ohio: Work and Benefits, School To Work; Medicaid Buy-In.

- DB 101 is a resource for families, job seekers and professionals that can be used to help analyze the impact of employment on an individual’s benefits.

- While DB 101 does not replace a comprehensive benefits analysis, it can help to provide a general understanding about employment and benefits.
