

Disability Disclosure Note Catcher

Name: _____ Date: _____

Round One: Reflection Questions

What factors do you think should influence a person's decision to disclose their disability?

How might the visibility of a disability impact the way someone approaches disclosure?

What are some potential benefits of disclosing your disability to an employer, and how might these benefits impact your work experience?

Round Two: Reflection Questions

How would you approach planning your own disability disclosure? What steps would you take to prepare?

Which method of disclosure (verbal, email, or both) do you think would work best for you? Why do you feel that way?

How would you handle misconceptions about your disability? What strategies could you use to clarify these misunderstandings?

Round Three: Reflection Questions

Who do you think is the most appropriate person to disclose your disability to in a workplace setting and why?

What lessons can you take from the speaker's approach to disclosure? How might you apply these lessons in your own life?