

A student is denied reasonable accommodations during exams.

A school event is not accessible to students with disabilities.

A student with a disability faces discrimination from a teacher who refuses to provide necessary accommodations.

A young adult with a disability is applying for a job and is asked if they have a disability?

A young adult with a disability is denied entry to a public event because the venue is not accessible

A direct support staff refuses to take their client with a disability to their doctors appointment because they don't think they are sick

A young adult with a disability is not given the opportunity to participate in a study abroad program due to lack of accommodations

A direct support staff tells their client with a disability they cannot purchase the snacks they want because they are not healthy enough