Brainstorm answers to the questions below. If a question doesn't apply to you or makes you feel uncomfortable, skip to the next one.

- What makes you special, different, or unique?
- Think of your skills, talents, hobbies, or interests, what are they?
- What are you really good at?
- What clubs or organizations do you participate in?
- Do you volunteer? If you do, what do you do and what have you learned?
- What communities are you a member of? What is your identity?
- What career are you most interested in?

Use your answers to the questions above to search for scholarships that are a good fit for you. Visit one or more of these sites and use the Filter or Keyword functions to search for scholarships that match your attributes.
